Wingate is . . .

THE 1967 GATE
Wingate College
Wingate, North Carolina

Progressive education . . .

*"The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon,
but only to hold a man's foot long enough
to enable him
to put the other somewhat higher."
THOMAS HUXLEY*

Athletic development . . .

*"Coming together is a beginning;
keeping together is progress;
working together is success."*

HENRY FORD

Cultural enrichment . . .

*"Culture is the habit
of being pleased
with the best
and knowing why."*

HENRY VAN DYKE

Religious inspiration . . .

*"There's not a man
That lives who hath not known his
godlike hours."*

WORDSWORTH

Architectural growth . . .

*"Buildings are the books
that everybody
unconsciously reads . . ."*
CHARLES B. FAIRBANKS

An outstanding professor . . .

*"A teacher affects eternity;
he can never tell where
his influence stops."*
HENRY ADAMS

The dedicatee is a master craftsman; his skill goes beyond that of art and expands into his ability to mold, guide, and inspire the very best in his students. His teaching surpasses that of an academic subject and encompasses the teaching of a way of life by the example he sets. He has taught us not only the finer things in life through his artistic instruction, but also life's high ideals through his unyielding devotion. For what he has given to Wingate College and its students, we, members of the Gate staff, dedicate the 1967 edition of the Gate to Professor Dwight H. Ives.

Professor Ives lectures on "Mother Hubbard" at Wingate's faculty talent show.

"How fast a memory has love!"

The artist at work.

Professor Dwight H. Ives

Future's gateway . . .

*"We pause in the doorway,
figures of indecision.
The light of the future
beckons our passage.
The memories are ours to retain.
To advance from the doorstep
will mean not separation
but a uniting of the two,
And both will step out to the daylight
of future striving.
One step forward does end this shadow,
but perhaps tomorrow will produce
another room,
another shadow,
another beginning,
another end."*

ANN HARNED
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

A diversity of events and a variety of people have become integrated to produce a unique year in the life of Wingate College, 1967. Unique in that it differs from all subsequent years and all those that are to follow. A year of progress and failure, victory and defeat, searching and sometimes finding, happiness and sorrow, effervescence and depression, work and frustration, endurance and fatigue. Each of these aspects of life, each of these emotions, has been experienced in the act of living by Wingate and its people. This Gate is published to aid in the recall and remembrance of that dot in life's infinity which has somehow molded a part of each student's life.

President

Dear Students of Wingate College, 1966-67:

Young people, it is with deep gratitude and humility that I say thank you for becoming a member of our family. We hope you realize that you are an integral part, and we are always concerned about you, your welfare, and your plans for a life of usefulness and service.

In this day of turmoil and confusion you are indeed the bright light that beckons. We hope Wingate can inspire you to do your very best and be your very best at all times. Wingate's philosophy of concern and respect for each individual student shall always be a primary aim. This can make for greatness in you and your Wingate. Help us to realize these aims through you.

The beauty that surrounds you is ever a reminder of our Creator and His greatness in your life. The opportunities and challenges are a road to full maturation. The challenges that come, and at times seem to be a burden, are but stepping stones to your achievement. Do not allow tiny pebbles that irritate the feet for just a moment to become boulders on the road of progress.

Kindest regards and sincere wishes always,

Budd E. Smith

Organizations

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The organization which is the strongest and most effective is the Student Government. Its prime purpose is to serve the student body. It promotes the general welfare of the students and stimulates its members to participate in various phases of campus activity. One of its high goals is to increase the co-operation with the faculty in order to obtain the best from the students.

The Student Government is composed of the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the Student Body, twenty-two senators, the presidents of the sophomore and freshman classes and the advisers.

The Student Government sponsors most all of the social functions of the college. It is responsible for the social events centered around Homecoming, May Day, and at least one major concert.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Wingate Christian Council is a newly formed organization unifying all religious activities on campus. It was organized this year as the center from which all preparation and support for its branches would come. These branching dependent organizations are the Baptist Student Union, Methodist Youth Group, the Canterbury Club, the Presbyterian Club, and the Lutherans. The WCC offers and extends an invitation to every student to have some religious affiliation while attending Wingate College. Prior to this year, the only club of this nature was the BSU, naturally supporting only the Baptist denomination. It is hoped that through this extension program each student will find spiritual growth and enlightenment in Christian fellowship. These organizations have worked as one body throughout the year, supporting projects which have been of benefit, not only to the campus, but to the community as well.

CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

The Council exists to supervise and co-ordinate all the religious activities on the campus. It strives to help each individual student to gain the full benefits of a college education, and to relate his own personal religion to everyday campus life. The Council has undertaken seminars and discussion groups as part of their activities. Its members are Mr. Thomas Faulkenberry, advisor, Ken Childers, Bobby Phillips, Gene Light, David Long, Dianne Capps, Nancy Green, Dwayne Martin, Geraldine Bowlin, and Donna Farley.

BSU EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

This year the Baptist Student Union is an organization which requires its members to make themselves an active part of it. With the other religious organizations on campus, each student must identify himself with a particular faith.

The BSU offers its members a fellowship which inspires Christian fun and spiritual growth. The BSU has sponsored projects, forums, and films with the hope that each student may maintain a genuine relationship with his Creator.

CHURCH RELATED VOCATIONS

The Church-Related Vocations Club was once known as the Voluntary Band and only ministerial students were eligible for membership. Today, however, any student at Wingate who is planning or is interested in a church-related vocation is eligible for membership. Some of These vocations are minister, church music, religious education director, church secretary, missionary, and others. This organization is interdenominational and each member's goal is to be a Christian example on this campus. The main project this year was to conduct a worship service each month on the first and third Sundays at the Community Convalescent Center in Monroe. This organization meets each month on the second Tuesday for a luncheon and on the fourth Thursday for a business meeting.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The purpose of the Young Woman's Auxiliary is to give the young ladies on campus a broader and more adequate conception of world conditions and missionary activities. Each year the Y. W. A. observes the weeks of prayer for foreign and home missions. The most meaningful project they fulfill is to present Bibles to the foreign students on campus written in their own language.

Its members are Dianne M. Capps, President; Shirley A. Swicegood, Vice-president; Judy M. Smith, Secretary; Geraldine Bowlin, Treasurer; Willene Clark, Ann Hartgrove, Nancy Greene, Lynn Phillips, Molly White, Judy E. Under the direction of Mr. James L. Blackwelder, the choir engages in a variety of activities throughout the year. Their major appearances on campus includes such annual appearances as the Christmas and Spring Concerts, the Spring Concert Tour, and the Graduation Programs. They also perform at churches and schools throughout North Carolina and neighboring states.

WINGATE COLLEGE BAND

Due to the efforts of Mr. Cook and interested students, the first full-time band was originated at Wingate College this year. It is now the nucleus of the instrumental music program to be offered at Wingate. The band strives to serve as a musical organization for music majors, as well as for students who enjoy performing good music. Due to this aspect, band members are from all areas of college work. During basketball season, the band attributes much to school spirit by performing at basketball games and pep rallies. In the spring, formal concerts are presented on the Wingate campus and in the surrounding communities. The band has planned concert tours for the future, further enlarging its realm of performance.

The band provides an added attraction at home games.

Members of this organization include Walter Allen, John Bell, Pam Broach, Frank Corbin, Calvin Crutchfield, James Fisher, Ronnie Huff, R. B. TRIANGLE STAFF

One of the outstanding publications of Wingate College this year, the Triangle Staff has worked hard and achieved much. The staff's objective is to publish a paper, to give some of the news some of the time, but not all of the news all of the time.

The Triangle Staff has channeled her power through the organizations on campus, the students, and the administration. As in any publication of this kind, the ultimate goal is trying to meet the deadline. This year the staff has done a job well worth recommendation.

MEANDERINGS STAFF

The purpose of the Wingate College magazine, Meanderings, is to discover creative ideas of the students which otherwise would go unnoticed. The staff plans to publish a spring issue which will contain as much of the best art and writing of the Wingate students as possible.

THE GATE STAFF

The 1966-67 Gate staff began with nothing and worked to unify a host of ideas into a significant annual. From a confusion of copy, photographs, class pictures, identifications, and captions they organized this year's Gate. Through the excellent work of Mr. Linn E. Joy, the staff assessed a mountain of outstanding pictures. Through the conscientious work of the art editors, these pictures were layed out in a balanced presentation. From the minds of the copy editors came a wealth of words, descriptive of people, places, and events. From the section editors came organizational ability to unify these contributions. From Ramona Henson came direction for the efforts of the entire staff. Most important, from the students themselves came the vitality to give the annual life. The staff has merely brought together what Wingate, its students, and faculty have produced through living and learning together.

What encourages a team to do well? Every organization needs encouragement, but this organization was created for the sole purpose of promoting school spirit and standing behind all athletic phases of the college. Two of their projects this year are the Homecoming Bonfire and the Gardner-Webb pep rally. Without this club, the scores for many games would be quite different.

WINTER FESTIVAL

"We dedicate this week of entertainment, instruction, and participation to making more meaningful the ever-fascinating, ever-challenging experience of Living and Learning, which we know as Education." Dr. Smith has summarized the essence of Wingate's Second Annual Winter Festival in these words. The Festival Week was one filled with unlimited opportunities for all. The variety of presentations included something which was appealing to each person on campus. Politics, religion, literature, business, and music were a few of the fields offered. Events were scheduled each day and each evening, allowing ample opportunities for participation. A diversity of events with an adaptable schedule made this Winter Festival a highly delightful experience. Truly, each student broadened his intellectual horizons by becoming a part of the celebration.

The Charlotte Symphony Orchestra appeared in concert featuring Ronald Turini, pianist.

MEMORIAM

*To an open house in the evening,
Home shall men come,
To an older place than Eden,
And a taller town than Rome.
To the end of the way of the wandering star,
To the things that cannot be and that are,
To the place where God was homeless,
And all men are at home.*

The temper of life is to be made good by big, honest blows; stop striking and you will accomplish nothing; strike feebly, and you will do almost as little. Success rides on every hour—grapple it, and you may win; but without a grapple it will never go with you. Work is the weapon of honor, and who lacks the weapon will never triumph.
